

N. J. KJELDSEN OF HYDE PARK LAID TO REST

Hyde Park, May 23.—The funeral of Nels J. Kjeldsen was held in the meeting house May 22 at 2 p. m. Bishop C. G. Hyde presiding. The choir sang, There Is Sweet Rest In Heaven. Prayer was offered by Elder Rosel H. Hyde. Fred T. Ballam sang, I Know That My Redeemer Lives.

Stephen Thurston was the first speaker. He said we will all be judged according to our works, and felt assured that the deceased would receive a good reward.

Elder William Balla paid a brief tribute to the moral worth of the deceased and said we had lost a good citizen.

Elder Fred T. Ballam paid a beautiful tribute to the early pioneers, and spoke of their great faith and integrity. They were men of great character and builded upon a sure foundation. We should form good resolutions and carry them out in our daily lives. We should not draw away from our parents' examples. The morality of the people depends more upon the masses, than upon the individual. The better way to preach the gospel is to live it. Our works will speak for themselves, and we need not advertise them.

Elder Jacob Johnson, of Logan, spoke of the great faith of those who embraced the gospel in foreign lands. He knew the deceased to be an honest man.

Arthur Petersen then sang, Oh My Father, after which Elder Charles England of Logan, spoke of mansions here upon earth, and said that some lived for themselves only and for the pleasures of this life, others had a higher aim and were preparing for a life hereafter. Many embraced the gospel in foreign lands had suffered much and had set many noble examples and did much for the present generation.

Bishop C. G. Hyde made a few closing remarks, and admonished the saints to live upright, honorable lives. He testified to the good works of Brother Kjeldsen.

The choir then sang, Rest For the Weary Soul. The benediction was pronounced by Counselor Lorenzo Petersen.

At the cemetery the grave was dedicated by Elder Lars C. Peterson. Nels Jensen Kjeldsen was the son of Jens Nielsen Kjeldsen and Anne Katrine Kjeldsen, and was born in Sall Skanderborg, Denmark, January 20, 1839; was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints, May 3, 1877, and came to America and to Utah, in the year 1878. He became a member of the Hyde Park ward in 1879 and has resided here ever since, and has been a faithful Latterday Saint, and an honest man with many friends to mourn his loss.

THE LILJENQUIST MONUMENT

At special public memorial services at Hyrum, Cache County, Utah, President Anthon H. Lund will dedicate the monument erected in the cemetery of said city to the memory of Bishop O. L. Liljenquist.

The committee as selected last October, namely: I. C. Thoresen, C. A. Carlson, Andrew Jensen, H. F. Liljenquist and John Jensen, have thru their untiring efforts collected about $550 from the family and friends of Father Liljenquist in Utah and Idaho by public subscription. The committee after investigation of monuments in stock here, at Ogden, Brigham, and Logan, awarded the contract to Mr. C. O. Johnson of this city for a beautiful compact Salida Colorado granite with double base, the lower base being Utah granite, 5 feet 4 inches by 2 feet 10 inches and 1 foot 2 inches high. The total height of the monument is over 5 feet. The die is inscribed as follows:

Ola Nilsson Liljenquist
Born September 23, 1825, Ignaberga, Sweden; Died, April 24, 1906.

An Ardent but Humble Missionary, Bishop and Patriarch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints, First Mayor of Hyrum City, 1870-76. Erected to His Memory by Family and Friends, 1916.

with the word Liljenquist across the second base in large letters.

The services at the Hyrum City cemetery begin at one o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, May 30, 1916, and will be conducted jointly by the municipal authorities and the Liljenquist Monument Committee. An excellent program will be rendered, consisting of speeches and specially prepared music. Mr. Hagbert Anderson of Ogden will sing, O My Father, the favorite hymn of Father Liljenquist. The Hyrum choir and band will render other selections. Reduced excursion rates for the occasion will be granted by all the railways, going May 29 and 30 and returning May 31.

The public, and especially the relatives and friends of Father Liljenquist, are cordially invited to be present. Respectfully,
I. C. THORESEN,
Chairman.

Out It Came.

Man on the Desk—This is an announcement of a wedding, isn't it?

"Sure."

"Well, why do you say 'Please omit flowers'? That goes with a funeral notice."

"Well, I showed it to a man who knows the chap who's going to marry the girl, and he said he was a dead one."

"No matter what he said. You are not the funny man on this paper. Cut that out!"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

HEAVY RAIN FORCES POSTPONEMENT OF GOOD ROADS DAY TO JUNE 7

Yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock the Roads committee of the Commercial Club met at the Club rooms to consider the advisability of working on the roads. It was decided to postpone the work owing to the rain, as the road to be surfaced was too muddy, and to haul loads over it would have done more harm than good.

Mr. Schramm, president of the Rotary Club of Salt Lake City, advised that they could not work on the roads and that Good Roads day would be declared for Wednesday, June 7. This decision met the approval of the local committee very much as by that time the road to be surfaced will be in much better condition for the work and it will be possible to create a stronger sentiment for the movement.

The committee had worked very diligently in getting teams and men to agree to come. At the meeting it was reported that over 115 teams and about 500 men had been promised and agreed to work on the road on Wednesday. However, the committee and people in general were not disappointed as the rain was worth more to Cache Valley than all the good roads days.

It is to be hoped that every loyal citizen who promised a team or to come single handed, besides many more, will be out on Wednesday, June 7, and do the work that was intended on May 24. As the closing of the business houses yesterday was unanimous and the day was stormy, no business was lost or sacrifices made, so that the committee feels that there is no excuse for the stores not closing on June 7. The day will be made state wide and sufficient notice given so that the public will know that the places of business will be closed.

The committee is determined to promote stronger than ever, the road movement for June 7, as never before was there such a strong sentiment to work on the road as May 24 and the committee will see to it that the Good Roads Day, June 7, will be a big success.

On that day the refreshment committee will serve cheese and meat sandwiches, pickles, buttermilk, etc., to the workers.

INVESTIGATION OF FACTS ABOUT SUGAR FACTORY

While local persons interested were reluctant in giving the story, The Republican reporter is in possession of facts relating to a visit here of Leon Bone, a government expert and investigator, who is looking into the sugar beet factory controversy between private interests and the Amalgamated Sugar Company.

It is said that word reached government officials to the effect that the Amalgamated interests expect to erect a factory west of Smithfield, regardless of whether or not the private interests erect a factory. It is further stated that the same interests have proffered a million dollar bond to guarantee the erection of this factory.

On the other hand the private interests which have gone so far as to get several thousand acres of land signed up and has subscribed over $250,000 for stock so that they too will erect a factory.

The government interests in the case, it is said, is to see if the Amalgamated interests are in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. A thorough investigation will be made. This investigation has been started from statements made by officials of the Amalgamated Sugar Company, who were here at a meeting at the residence of Parley P. Bingham of Trenton, when about 25 beet raisers were present.

The result of this controversy will be watched with keen interest not only in Cache Valley but in the state as well.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCES

Following their annual custom the Odd Fellows and Woodmen of the World will unite in decorating the graves of departed members of their fraternities on Decoration Day, Tuesday next.

The members of these orders will meet on the First National Bank corner promptly at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning where they will take a special car to the cemetery.

Without doubt the Rebekah's and Women of Woodcraft will, as usual, join in the observances.

The Hyde Park band has been engaged to furnish the customary music and Rev. Martin Thomas of Salt Lake will deliver the memorial and fraternal address. All members of both orders are expected to be in attendance.

COMMITTEE IS SURE LOOKING AFTER THE ELK

John Christiansen, Lewis Edwards, C. W. Hansen, E. I. Stewart, Harry Stoner, William K. Robbins and Ed Spencer, the first six members of the Fish and Game committee of the Commercial Club and the latter in the forestry service, took a trip into the mountains east of Logan yesterday for the purpose of determining how the herd of elk are faring and as reports were current that the elk were getting low on the foothills this committee decided to drive them back into the hills.

Despite the fact that it was storming the committee left at 8 o'clock by horseback and when they returned at 12 o'clock noon they were wet to the skin, having weathered a blizzard of rain, hail and snow from the time they left the city. While they did not see the elk they found evidences of their being several miles east of Providence. These evidences were shown from fresh tracks encountered on the trip.

The boys report that they never weathered a rougher storm, and when they arrived home for dinner the wearing apparel was so wet that they had to change every article. However the boys were pretty game and stayed together until after lunch which was taken in the workshop of Edwards Furniture store.

A fire was built and the lunch that had been carried with them on the trip made a spread that would make many a soldier in the German army feel that he had been fed on the best luxuries of the day were he to be dined in such a fashion.

After rehearsing incidents of the trip, which were most thrilling, the members of the committee returned home to receive the usual accolades from "the girl they left behind them," while Messrs Edwards and Hansen put in a full day in the said workshop on a nice soft bed in close proximity to the stove which evaporated from the clothes, the waters which had accumulated as a result of the trip in the Providence hills.

Toole and Reeves.

The English comedian, J. L. Toole, was a persistent joker, but on one occasion he was very nearly "hoist with his own petard." He was playing in "The Waterman" with Sims Reeves, who took the part of Tom Tug. When Toole asked, "What's the meaning of all this?" Sims Reeves yielded to an overwhelming temptation and replied, "The meaning of it is that you've been made a 'tool' of, and I'm a happy fellow!"

Toole racked his brain for a retort. "So it Sims," he said at last.

MRS. REDFORD CALLED AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Sarah Susanna Redford, wife of Robert Redford, of the Logan Sixth ward, died at her home in Logan yesterday morning after an illness of about three years.

Mrs. Redford was 55 years of age, having been born December 5, 1861. She was the mother of a large family of children including 4 boys and 8 girls all of whom are in this city at the present time.

Funeral services will be held in the Logan Sixth ward meeting house at 2 o'clock p. m. on Friday and burial will be in the Logan cemetery.

Besides this large family of children Mrs. Redford is survived by her mother, husband and 10 brothers and sisters as follows:

Thomas W. Lloyd, Joseph B. Lloyd, Jessie W. Lloyd, Mrs. John A. Hendrickson, Mrs. Anna Osmond, Daniel Lloyd, Charles E. Lloyd, Ezra T. Lloyd, Mrs. Oscar Borkman, and George T. Lloyd of Salt Lake City.

The children are as follows:

R. L. Redford of Hatch, Idaho; Mrs. W. T. Brown of Hatch, Idaho; T. L. Redford, of Logan; Mrs. Ute E. Griffin of Richmond; Mrs. J. W. Clark, of Teton; Mrs. Roscal Stoddard of Downey; Mrs. J. C. Sorenson of Price, Utah; and Elva, Ruby, Ida, Rulon and Verna Redford, of Logan.

Mrs. Redford is known by her friends to have been a loving wife, a devoted mother and a life long Latterday Saint.

CHAMPION GOLF PLAYER COMING

We have had from time to time various celebrities sojourning among us—famous ball players, poloists, gridiron veterans, but it is our pleasure to welcome a distinguished innovation to the list—Mr. Burt P. McKinney—on a long series of battles on the links, in competition with the best golf players in which he was a participant, he has played all over the country, winning fifteen cups. His prowess effected a decided indentation in several National Tournaments. Additional to the fifteen cups captured in the game, Mr. McKinney won and maintained inviolate for two years the golf championship of St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. McKinney is manager of the International Operatic Company, a musical program feature of the chautauqua. He was formerly leading baritone with Savage's English Opera Company and sings that part with his company. Not the least delightful of his many qualifications as an operatic star of international prominence is the unconscious out of doors freedom, control and zest of the links signally apparent in his work in opera.

U.A.C. GLEE CLUB CONCERT SUCCESS

The Agricultural College Glee Club under the direction of Dr. George R. Hill, gave an open air recital on the college campus Tuesday evening. The club, which consists of 24 male members, has been practicing most of the winter but this is the first open air appearance it has made. It aims to make this concert an annual event from now on.

The program last night consisted of twenty selections rendered by the club as a whole with solos by E. J. Kirkham, J. W. Thornton and A. B. Willie, the latter two accompanied by the club. The quartet selections were given by members of the club. In addition to the regular musical numbers H. R. Merrill gave a stump speech. A large audience, consisting of students and many townspeople, were in attendance and gave the singers enthusiastic applause after each number.

LEWISTON WEEKLY LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Lewiston, May 24.—The Lewiston baseball team played the U. A. C. at Logan, Thursday. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the U. A. C. boys.

Joseph Bergensen has deserted his old one horse shay and is driving about Lewiston in a Studebaker car.

The Les Bon Ami Club met in their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Eva Parkinson. Mrs. Ruey Bernhiel treated the lesson, Civilization marked by a woman's progress. Mrs. Eva Parkinson treated the subject, Ancient Women. The following club members were present: Mrs. Ruey Bernhiel, Mrs. Hazel Karren, Mrs. Ada Van Orden, Mrs. Myrtle Pond, Mrs. Millie Van Orden, Mrs. Edna Villett, Mrs. Carrie Coley, Mrs. Stella Bell, Mrs. Gale Lewis, Mrs. Nell Bernhiel, Mrs. Dollie Lewis was an invited guest. Refreshments were served.

In the last issue of the Lewiston Tribune, there was quite a lengthy article written upon the robbery at the depot of the O. L. & I. and in that article it was stated in substance that Mr. Young and the culprit got away with $75. Now it is the general belief of the people of this community that Mr. Young is entirely blameless and according to Christian code, a man is innocent until he is proven guilty. Possibly the Tribune made a misprint and it otherwise did not mean for that statement to go out.

The Lewiston baseball team will meet the Logan team at the Lewiston ball park Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Jamison is visiting at McCammon, Idaho.

Mrs. Zera Pond, left Lewiston for her home at Bench, Idaho, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tarbett of Arimo, Idaho, were visiting at Lewiston, Monday, guests of Mrs. Carrie Coley.

The Lewiston Boosters met in regular session Saturday evening. The business transacted was as follows: A committee of three, G. A. Hogan, S. R. Rogers and Dr. J. M. Bernhiel, were appointed to go to Logan Wednesday on business concerning the Salt Lake and Yellowstone Highway. A joint committee comprising George Blood, Joseph McCann, Chris Knudsen of Preston; Hugh McClain, of Fairview, Martin Pond and Bishop T. S. Karren were appointed to look after the road connecting up with the state running to Preston.

Some time ago the Boosters Club elected Mrs. Maud Stocks as editor in chief for the Lewiston Tribune; but on account of Mr. Peter E. Van Orden buying an interest in the paper and becoming co-partner, Mr. Van Orden objected to this arrangement. The matter was taken up last Saturday evening and Mr. Van Orden was substituted in place of Mrs. Stocks. A free telephone was recommended. No one seriously objected and the new arrangements went into effect.

Wouldn't it be nice—now wouldn't it be nice if the Lewiston Boosters would take up the matter seriously and petition town board to remove that unsightly old fence from the tabernacle square, place benches under the trees and make a public park of the same, that the people of Lewiston would appreciate, who knows if that much should be accomplished. Some one might take up the note and organize a really truly band for the people in the park to listen to the music.

Mr. Moroni Beck, his mother and little daughter Annie of Newton were visiting at Lewiston Sunday guests of Mr. J. M. Bernhiel.

Mr. Bert Orchard was a visitor at Preston, Monday.

Mr. Ether Telford has moved his family from Ogden back to Lewiston. The Telfords have spent the winter at Ogden that the children might attend school.

Mrs. Edna Gustavson spent several days visiting with relatives at Pocatello, Idaho.

The social hour of the Lewiston First ward was held Wednesday afternoon. The fifth grade did the entertaining at the grove of Mr. B. Pond, an excellent program was rendered, games were played and refreshments were served.
